BETA THETA PI

Betas Set New Intramural Sports Records

It has been another scholastic year for the Betas. They won the over-all Scholarship Trophy for the 17th time in the last 21 years, they set a new Intramural record with 93 points, and four of the Top Ten Freshmen men were Betas: Jerry Hassebroek, Bill Weinrich, Charles Bethea, and Eric Feaver. It looks as if they recruited a good freshman team, too, because the 1963-64 pledge class won the IFC Spark Plug trophy, which is presented to the pledge class with the best over-all grades for the year.

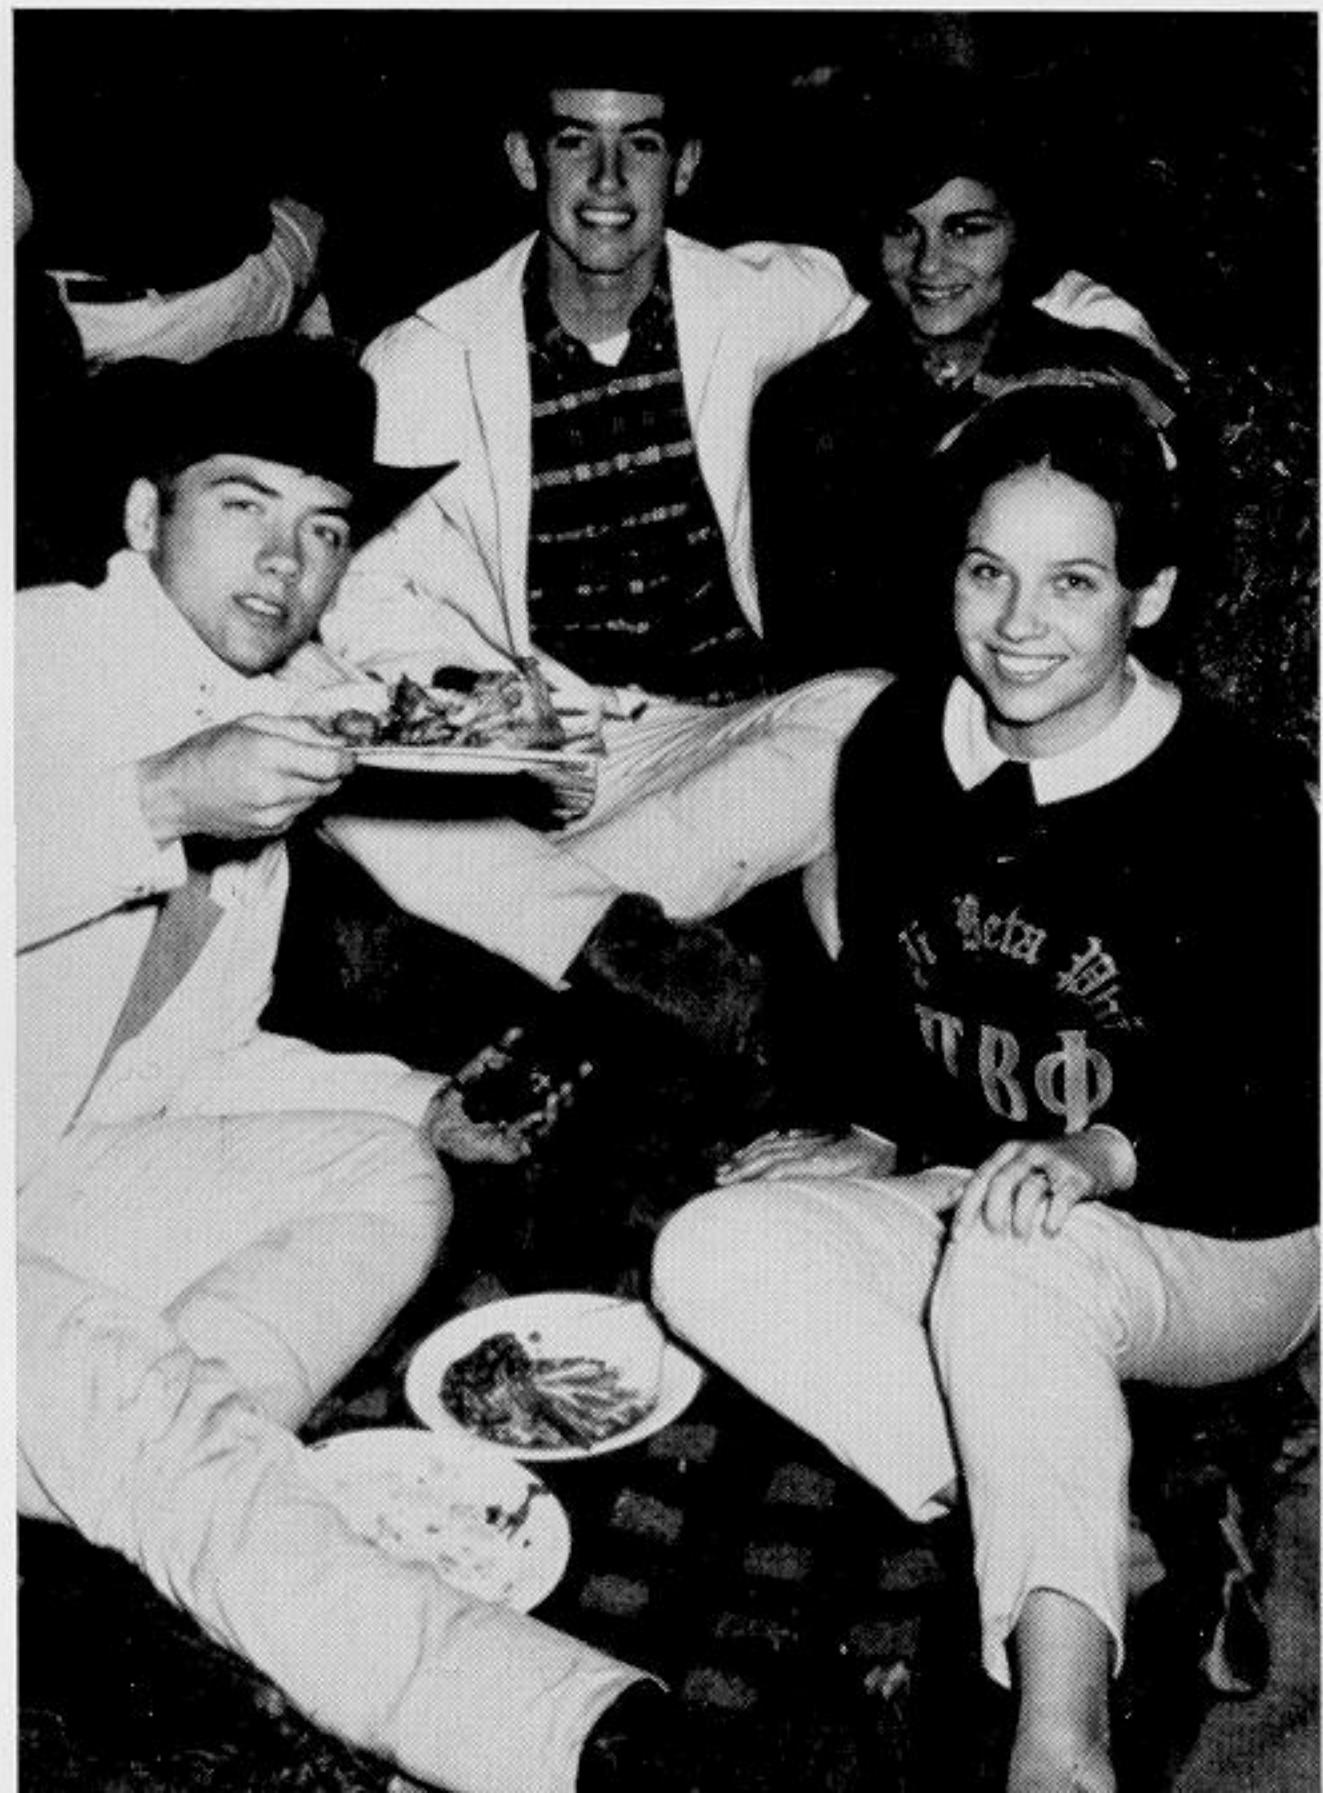

Don Crews, fall Beta president, Dads' Day Outstanding Senior Man, President of UAB and ODK, director of 1964 Sooner Scandals, Top Ten Freshmen, Pe-et, Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa, BMOC, Who's Who, and Yearbook Man of Distinction; and John Kirton, Top Ten Freshmen, treasurer of Campus Chest, lighting chairman of Sooner Scandals, Phi Eta Sigma, and ODK are two reasons why Betas are so well represented in campus activities.

Spring semester officers were Tom Parrott, president; Carlisle Mabrey, vice president; Eric Feaver, secretary; Phil Adamson, treasurer; and Bobby Vedder, social chairman.

Beta social life included the Beta Barn Dance, the Senior Dinner, the Pledge Formal and the Spring Party.

ALWAYS ready to take time out to eat are Randy Gaines and Jay Wooley, but Judy Mikeska and Kathy Nelson are ready to party.

THE OLD swimming hole has changed, but Tom Metcalf, Joe McMillan, Steve Garner and Jeff Wooley enjoyed Beta's Pool Party.
